

First Lutheran Church

Facility Use Policy

- Congregational activities always receive priority use of facilities.
- Only non-profit events or meetings are allowed.
- The facilities are alcohol, tobacco and drug free.
- Those using the facilities will be responsible for injury or property damage.
- No permanent storage is given to any outside group.
- The office administrator will make arrangements for member's use of facilities. The office, with the Council approval, will be required for recurring non-profit group use.
- Julie Barfknecht (or her designee) will unlock the building and ensure that the facility is returned to proper order after use.
- Outside groups are normally not permitted to use the sanctuary. Please respect the sanctity of this area.
- No use of kitchen appliances without training before use.

Non-profit group use:

No fee will normally be charged for ongoing use of the building by community non-profits. Such groups will be responsible for cleaning up after themselves. The cleaning checklist is to be followed (on back).

Member use (other than weddings or funerals):

Members will be assessed a $150 cleaning deposit for use of the facility. The deposit will be returned provided the facility is cleaned and in good order after use. Church custodian, Julie Barfknecht (or her designee) will check out the group to ensure building has been cleaned. The cleaning checklist is to be followed. If the member elects not to clean they will be charged the $150 janitorial fee.

Fee schedule for funerals and weddings: Fees for funerals will be handled by the funeral director. Fees for weddings will be received in the office on the day the church is reserved. No reservation will be made until fees are received.
